Fairbankses, 1,000 Strong, In a Reunion

A thousand Fairbankses assembled in the old hotel at Dedham, Mass., yesterday with the Vice President the principal speaker and object of interest. It was a matter of the greatest regret that Mrs. Fairbanks was unable to be there, as she had all hoped, but she is not yet sufficiently strong to undertake any such strenuous engagement. The Vice President spent but eighteen hours with his family on his visit to them this week, as his engagements at Dedham, Boston, and several other places in Massachusetts for this "Old Home Week" took him away again. He will leave again for the West on another prolonged trip tomorrow or next day.

Mrs. Gardiner Williams, of Washington, was one of the hostesses recently at a bridge luncheon at the Tedesco Club, Hamilton, Mass. There were six tables, and after the game a buffet luncheon was served.

It seems as though the summer of a member of the most noted family in America would not be complete without at least one hold-up by the authorities either in his country or abroad, for too fast speeding of an auto. The latest one is the son of former Representative R. R. Hitt, William F. Hitt, who has just been tried in Kariabad, but acquitted, on the charge of running over a workman in that vicinity. The chauffeur of M. des Portes de la Poste, chargé d'affaires of France and counselor of the embassy, was arrested a few days ago in Newport for speeding his car, but was not held.

Word has been received here of the wedding date of Miss Mary Labroe, daughter of Mrs. R. Stuart Labroe, of Baltimore, and Col. Arthur Harris, of the British army, now stationed in India. The ceremony will take place in London on August 27, and Colonel Harris and his bride will leave shortly after for his post in India. He has been on leave in England for the past two months, and is obliged to join his regiment earlier than he had expected, so that the wedding will take place considerably sooner than the family of the bride had intended. They had wished the marriage to take place in the Baltimore home of the bride. A number of the relatives from Baltimore will go over for the ceremony.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Sellers have as their guests at their apartment in Connecticut, Mrs. Sellers' sister, Miss Nellie Clay Evans, of Kentucky, younger daughter of former Commissioner of Pensions Henry Clay Evans.

John Barrett, who has been in Jamestown attending the exposition for the past few days, returned to Washington last evening.

Miss Blanche S. Burns, of 1710 Ninth street, has returned from a three weeks' visit to New York and Atlantic City.

The Persian minister was among the guests Monday evening at the party of Miss Elizabeth Harmer Reese, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Reese.

Miss Reese, who is seventeen years of age, will not be presented to society for another year or two, yet she is still at her books, and as she is especially gifted musically, particular care is being expended on her voice.

Gen. Morteza Khan, the Persian minister, who is spending the summer in Washington, will go to the Pacific coast and to Mexico in September, and will also visit Yellowstone Park.

Cristoforo Canseco, second secretary of the Mexican embassy, has been transferred to Rio Janeiro, and promoted to the position of first secretary of the embassy there. Mr. Canseco left Washington yesterday for Mexico to visit his mother and later will travel abroad, spending some time in Paris and London, before reporting at his new post of duty.

In London Mr. Canseco will be the guest of Lord Fitzmaurice.

The minister to Denmark and Mrs. Maurice Francis Egan have leased their home on Nineteenth street to Capt. Bowyer, U. S. N., to the Assistant Secretary of the Navy.

Miss Elsie Bacon, daughter of Mrs. William B. Bacon, of New York, will be married to Joseph C. Lovering, in the country home of Robert Bacon, Assistant Secretary of State, at Jamaica Plain, Mass., October 12, where the Baccans are spending the summer.

Yung Kwai, first secretary of the Chinese legation, has returned from a visit to Colonial Beach, where Mrs. Yung Kwai and their children are spending the summer. They have had a cottage there for several years and go down for the season after the close of school.

Mr. and Mrs. George Russell Lukens, the latter formerly Miss Emma Mullin, whose marriage took place here in Washington in June, are now en route to their Oklahoma home, after spending the first part of their honeymoon at Thousand Islands.

Miss May Reynolds, daughter of Gen. A. Reynolds, U. S. A., who has been spending the early summer at the Chevy Chase Inn, will leave for a week, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Cordelia Gross, for a stay of a few weeks at Virginia Beach.

Later they will visit the exposition, military, and naval posts at Norfolk, Portsmouth, and the vicinity, and will attend the Warrenton Horse Show in September.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Woods, of South Carolina, spent a few days in the city on their way North.

Mrs. Drennon has returned to her apartment in the Frederick after several weeks in the George Washington Hospital, where she has been seriously ill.

Miss Evelyn Kennerly Clark, sister-in-law of Clarence S. Houghton, of New York, and granddaughter of former Governor Clark, of Missouri, was married to George A. Chadwick, of the Warrington, in New York, on July 26, by the Rev. Dr. Houghton. Miss Clark is a lineal descendant of George Rogers Clark and Meriwether Lewis of the famous Lewis and Clark Expedition to the Northwest, of which her grandfather, Roosevelt, took occasion to write one of his monographs.

One of the most beautiful and brilliant receptions of the season was given on Friday evening from 8 until 12 o'clock by Admiral Huet de Bacellar, Brazilian minister, at Hampton Roads. The entire ship was ablaze with beauty, being transformed by its decorations into a veritable tropical bower. The guests, in every conceivable space and masses of white carnations and roses, blended beautifully with flags of all nations. The entire ship was covered with a canopy of Brazil's own flags and on either side of the ship were arranged a pyramid of palms and ferns, fountains, which played throughout the evening. The admiral received the guests in a private reception room, which was filled with rare and lovely flowers with graceful ferns to add to the effect. The entire squadron was brilliantly illuminated, every part of the ships being outlined with rows of electric lights, and the names of the ships written in lights. The ship's band played most beautifully throughout the evening, and dancing was enjoyed on the upper deck. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather a large number of guests were present. Since these ships have been in port the officers have entertained very delightfully, and it is a source of regret to many that they have returned to Brazil. Among those attending the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Barton Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor, Dr. and Mrs. Walter J. Adams, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Grindy, Mr. and Mrs. Rudyard Wigg, Mr. and Mrs. New York, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Poindester, Miss Stephanie Schiano, Admiral Harrington, Miss Harrington, the Misses Sloan, of New York, Misses of Alexandria, Miss Charlotte Van Sloan, of Dayton, Ohio; Miss Ellen Douglas Gray and Miss Mary Scott, of Annapolis, Va.; Misses Florence Tait, Mary Payne, Katharine and Lottie Myers, Claire Wigg, Charlotte Laird, Betty and Elizabeth Scott, Emily Ebbworth, Mary F. Mrs. Hammond London Guest of Mrs. Coman

The Military Attaché of the American Embassy in London and Mrs. Sidney A. Coman have as their house guest Mrs. John Hayes Hammond, at whose home, in Lakewood, N. J., the marriage of Mrs. Clement and Captain Coman took place last December.

Mr. Hammond has been on a trip to the cobalt fields of Canada, having left his home, at Freshwater Cove, Friday, a week ago. Previous to his departure Mr. Hammond went on a brief yachting trip with a party of friends, Baron Rosen, the Russian ambassador, was among Mr. Hammond's guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammond contemplate the erection of a handsome residence in Washington next winter. It will probably be the most magnificent of the numerous handsome establishments in the fashionable section of Washington, and it will have the most superb grounds, which will be laid out by a famous landscape gardener from Boston.

The President of the Jamestown Exposition and Mrs. Harry St. George Tucker entertained at a delightful reception on Tuesday evening at their home, in Freemason street, in honor of the Fifth Regiment, Maryland National Guard. In addition to the Fifth Regiment, there were in attendance the officers of the battleship Missouri and the officers of the Brazilian cruisers in Norfolk. The commissioners and hostesses at the various State buildings were also present. The building was beautifully decorated throughout, the colors being yellow and white. The event was in honor of some young ladies, who had entertained the officers so pleasantly while in the harbor. The admiral tendered them the use of his dining-room, where a delicious ice course was served. The table bore an attractive center piece of roses, and across the top were strung hydrangea and rose leaves. Souvenirs of a gauze fan, box of candy and a Brazilian flag were at every place. The afternoon was spent in dancing, and those present were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Matthews, Mrs. Scidmore, Misses Margaret Rene and Ruth James, Ethel Matthews, Nancy Renn, Margaret Niemeyer, Sue Moore, Imogene Ennis, and Ray Wemple, and Eugene Matthews.

G. P. O. SUSPENSIONS STILL IN FORCE

Ramsey and Collins Remain on Waiting List.

It is stated today that no further action has yet been taken in the cases of William R. Ramsey and Homer K. Collins, who are on present on the suspended list of the Government Printing Office.

Mr. Ramsey, who is the foreman of the Navy division of the office, was suspended about two weeks ago on the charge of failure to give the officials of the office proper co-operation in the matter of the installation of the new cost and audit system. He is still under suspension awaiting the pleasure of the Public Printer.

A report was in circulation in Government Printing Office circles that the Public Printer had taken action in the case of Homer K. Collins, superintendent of the buildings, and that his name had been dropped from the rolls. This report, however, has been denied.

Considerable mystery has surrounded the case of Mr. Collins from the first, neither he nor the Public Printer being willing to discuss it. His suspension came as a distinct surprise to the employees. It is said, because of the close relationship between the two, since Mr. Stillings has been Public Printer.

FIREMEN PLAN OUTING TO CHESAPEAKE BEACH

Local No. 53, International Brotherhood of Stationary Firemen, will give their second annual excursion to Chesapeake Beach on Thursday, August 22. The party will use the regular train schedule.

POSTAL NOTIFIED TO REMOVE WIRES

John D. Prosser, Washington manager of the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, today in acknowledging a communication from the District Commissioners notifying him as the legal representative of his company to remove all poles and wires from the public streets and alleys within the limits, as required by law, within ninety days of receipt of the notice, advised the Commissioners that he has forwarded the letter to the executive officials of his company in New York.

As announced by one of the Commissioners the Western Union Telegraph Company and the telephone and electric power and light companies have generally complied with the law, and Washington is in a fair way to see the overhead wires eliminated. Had the postal company complied with the law as the other corporations did there would now be few, if any, wires above ground.

COLORED MEN CAUGHT, POLICY GAME CHARGED

On the charge of running "policy games," George Chase, Winston Bridget, and George Seymour, all colored, were arraigned before Judge Mills in the Police Court this morning.

Chase's case was continued until Friday. Bridget and Seymour pleaded guilty and not guilty, respectively, and were held for the grand jury on $500 and $300 bonds.

The men were caught by Precinct Detective Green and Officers McGill and Grove while on the Aqueduct bridge. Chase is defended by Lawyer Carrington, who says he will be able to establish an alibi for his man.
